

I am writing in support of this bill. Law enforcement declaring an unlawful assembly and then arresting people has been a problem for decades. These declarations are often arbitrary and are certainly not used equally.