

I support SB191. In my opinion it is needed in order to help a AIC build a better future for themselves and their families. Help give hope of an early release due to good behavior and the decision to make better choices in life. Please pass SB191!