

No more government bureaucracy in waterways control. The government already has created more flooding in the state due to mismanagement and giving you eminent domain would just make it worse as we would lose any control or what little we have left.