

I think it is diabolical to destroy the work and life of entire families who respect the rules and create jobs, using terrorist images and giving too often partial information and too often without scientific relevance. When will this war that pits man against man end?