

I oppose this bill. Once again you are trying to slip this through despite the citizens of this state having said No in the past. This is too big of an issue to ram through without the public having time to read and respond to this bill.