

I oppose bill 2379. There is absolutely no need to tax timber at this difficult time during our country's struggle with COVID-19. Businesses are attempting to just survive....They don't need another tax, which of course will have a trickle down effect on all Oregonians.
NO ON 2379!