

Making this law will make students feel appreciated and make them feel like they belong . And finally use they're voice to make a change. This support was needed.