

The purpose of a tax is to help NOT hinder. There is no way an increase in the timber tax that is going to help anyone except the State coffers. There are so many jobs connected to and depend on the timber industry it is an integral part of our life in Oregon.