

April 8, 2021

Oregon House Committee on Energy and Environment

We are seeing signs of global climate change. This could have devastating consequences for our state in a worst case. It is only prudent to study the impact of our current laws so we can make changes if warranted.

Julia Pommert