

Oregon has a real problem with their politicians making laws that effect families struggling to put food on the table. Sure, the politicians make a good salary and never have to work out in the environment, never have to make a payroll or be held accountable for any of their actions. The Governor is rated at the 2nd worst in the USA. Now we are spending hundreds of millions of dollars just to keep the schools open for 28 days. We would not need a timber tax if we were more frugal with how we spend our tax dollars. The Democrat answer is always "Throw Money at It".
