

The future of our children depends on removing fossil fuels from the production of our energy. Building solar, wind and tidal facilities is critical step towards this goal. I support HB 2021-5 for moving us along.