

This tax is a transfer of wealth away from the rural areas and into the cities.
It will make the rural areas even more lawless than they are now.
Criminals want good people driven out of rural areas so they can operate freely.
The cities are selling us out and act virtuous while doing it.