

I strongly support all provisions of HB 2021. It is especially important to have benchmarks to check the progress of working toward the clean energy objectives.