

There are already agencies in place over seeing water quality, logging near streams, individual water sheds, ect Why should we fund another agency that is nothing but a drain on finances. It is clearly not necessary now or ever.