

Valuable resources are spent maintaining outdated, ineffective and inhuman methods of addressing the issues of homelessness can be stopped by gradual process. This is one of the steps. We can do better and we can have better.