

We must not allow killing contests to take place. Killing contests are a mindlessly cruel bloodsport like dogfighting and cockfighting. Killing coyotes for thrills and prizes—with no respect for their intrinsic or ecological value—is senseless violence and waste.