

I support the bill because it eases restrictions on individuals who are already facing many challenges posed by homelessness.