

Greetings, Why so hostile to our constitutional rights declared in our second amendment ? The criminal will ALWAYS find a way to have a gun whether legally or NOT. This puts "law abiders" at a disadvantage against the non-law abider. If you keep going down this unconstitutional path - law abiding citizens will not be able to protect their families from thugs and criminals that do not care about laws. Do you really think that guns are the problem ? A car does not drive down the street by itself and a gun does not shoot by it's own ability. It's the person behind the gun that controls the gun and bad guys that break all rules will always get their gun. You are only punishing the law abiding citizen - not the criminal.
