

I am disappointed in the efforts to leave me as a single mother with a daughter unprotected. How many law abiding citizens have caused problems or been negligent in practicing our gun rights? Stop trying punish the law abiding citizens of this state. This will not change a darn thing with criminals and there activities. Drugs are still here even with all the control and laws passed. Again how has this helped all that follow the law?