

To whom it may concern, please leave our gun rights alone. We are law abiding citizens. Our country has the right to bare arms and we need to be allowed to protect ourselves. Thank you very much and may God bless you all to do His will not your own.