

I am an octogenarian and an honorably discharged U.S. military veteran who holds a concealed handgun license. Being retired, I regularly travel throughout the state, visiting and passing through many different local jurisdictions. It is impractical to expect me or anyone else to become and remain currently aware of different ordinances, rules, or policies in any of the various jurisdictions through which anyone may pass or that anyone may visit.