

This bill and other ones like it are unconstitutional. Taking away where law abiding citizens can and can't conceal carry is taking away their right to protect their family, themselves and others around them that may be in direct harm.