

I did not realize that movie theatres were not included in the stimulus monies. Live theatre certainly deserves to be assisted but many people cannot afford to go to live theatre. We love the movies. They open our eyes to new horizons and new possibilities. They provide an economical way for us to enjoy theatre. There is nothing that can replace the big screen.