

I support HB 2728. Coyote killing contests (and categorically, ANY killing contests of killing) are cruel and barbaric. Coyotes are part of our natural ecosystem and should be given the ability to live their lives without threat of these unnecessary and sadistic spectacles.