

Supporting funding for our community colleges is so important, community colleges support our economic vitality of our communities. Linn Benton Community College nursing students have provided support with vaccination clinics and have vaccinated many of our community members at the mass vaccination clinics in Linn and Benton counties as just one example as well as many community college graduates of all programs stay within the state and are so important to our workforce.