

Susan Seereiter – Business Advocate Grants Pass

- During this difficult economic downturn due to the pandemic, it is more important than ever to invest in community development projects that will bring revenue to rural counties.

- By reinventing the fairgrounds into a magnet for events and tourists, we are creating a sustainable revenue stream for our community.

- The Flying Lark will not only bring in tourism revenue but also 200-300 jobs.

- The revitalized fairgrounds complex creates the opportunity for more community sports and entertainment events, which will bring in more tourism dollars to our region.

- GPD/Flying Lark is an economic catalyst for the region.

- SB 165 is a small step to ensure the economics of horse racing can modernize, which is a cornerstone to keeping horse racing alive in Oregon.
