

I oppose this union-busting bill. Seniority is a core union principal. There is no evidence that layoffs have decreased diversity in teaching. Seniority provisions protect minority teachers, too. Anyone who considers themselves pro-union cannot support this bill and expect union support in the future. The key to increasing racial and ethnic diversity in our teaching workforce is to recruit minority teachers and support them with mentoring and other services. Oppose or table this anti-union bill!