

I oppose anyone taking our gun rights. The constitution was built for times such as these and done with smarter people then the ones reading this.