

Active bystander intervention is absolutely necessary to prevent situations such as George Floyd and others. I would urge the legislature to order DPSST to make such intervention part of its basic training for all law enforcement officers.