

I would like to object to the bill allowing 17 years of age to vote in Primaries. They are considered a juvenile at that age for any other legal situation. If they were committed a crime, they would not be considered an adult until the age of 18 and the same should be true for their privilege to vote.