

Access to health care is vital for every Oregonian for individual, family and community quality of life. When everyone is healthy, we are all healthy. For many people today, the cost of care is a greater factor in deciding whether to seek care than "unwellness". This is not sustainable for a just society. I urge you to support SJR 12.