

I am concerned about my son and his friends. Many times they don't have jobs that have insurance and it only takes one accident to wipe out any gains they have made or worse, leave them with insufficient resources to make a healthy recovery. These young men and women are our children and our future .
Daryl Snyder