We've known for decades that our health care system is broken. I am self employed and health care costs make coverage for me unaffordable.