

Coyote derbys are a great thing to help ranchers and all outdoorsmen with the control of a predator that is a ruthless killer. Since the outlawing of hounds for bear and cougar in Oregon the deer and elk population had plummeted, getting rid of a major source of keeping the cyotes in check would be stupid. Predators are running rampant game animals are suffering horribly. If you keep making stupid laws for idiots we won't have game animals.