

Reiki has been a blessing to me and my family for over 20 years. It has helped raise my 8 children and extended family members. I have found it to be effective and non-evasive bringing mental and emotional stability. I would be sorely amiss, if this modality was put on restriction and not available to all in need.