

First of all, thank you Oregon Legislature for such deep and grave concern for public safety. What would we do with out you? However, kindly realize that my Spiritual Practice of kindness, healing and comfort toward fellow humans does not need your approval or your consent. Please go find some other group that needs your stern oversight and regulation.