

Please do not set a precedent for states regulating alternative healing work. People have used their generational and personal experience to heal others since tribal days. Passing legislation will disproportionately affect those from lower income, immigrant and POC communities.