

Restricts the freedom of citizens to choose alternative therapy. Adds layer upon layer of bureaucratic red tape. Raises money for the state from those who are barely able to continue their businesses at this time.