

As a person who has received alternative types of healing therapies, such as Reiki and acupuncture, I believe it is important to make these services easily available to all who practice or receive healing from these legitimate practices. Thank you.