

This bill would end numerous alternative therapies and teachings that help millions of people every day. People turn to alternative therapists & therapies who are not being helped by the mainstream medical community.