

i have been a healer for many years so where my grandparents, my family and i have helped many people with life changing experiences and there overall well being, Love and Light is the power behind Healing , it would be very unfair to take this away from humanity especially when it is needed more than ever , sending Love and Light to all involved with this bill Sincerely Rick Seivertson