

This bill would make it harder for my clients to continue to receive the care I've been offering for over 20 years. Alternative health is vital to all people and should not be dismissed.