

I oppose this bill as I have found great benefit from various non-psychotherapy modalities and have found these very helpful and affordable. If regulated, these modalities will become more expensive and the quality of care will diminish. Please vote no on this bill.