

I am a Reiki Master and offer sessions to people in the US and other countries to people who are stressed out or in pain. Reiki is a relaxation technique that many people rely on especially during Covid-19 and the political situations. This bill just popped up with no warning. Why? Please don't pass this bill. People, our animals, our planet rely on this service.