

This broad bill seems like it will affect many alternative practitioners, and some of these practitioner skills are some I use for my own personal health and well-being. I oppose this bill, especially during this difficult time for our local community!