

I believe our local government and state agencies should be grappling with the severity of the climate crisis and take meaningful steps to reduce carbon emissions and fund projects that prioritize community well being over highway systems and automobiles. HB 3065 is dangerous for our communities along side these projects and money needs to be used more wisely. I oppose HB 3065 and I demand you do too.