

Reiki is the only thing that has helped me after injury sustained from childbirth. This bill should absolutely not be passed. Those who are trained in these methods are extremely valuable members of our communities and deserve a living wage for their services.
Thank you