

I am writing in support of the A4 Amendment to this bill. We need a database of all police misconduct that allows for full transparency to the public.