

I am a former elementary teacher, and I support educators, with the help of scientists, in writing curriculum for students. Corporations and lobbying groups should NOT be in charge of what we teach our students.
Thank you.