

I am 74 years old and have accumulated 7 rental houses for income in my retirement years. Without the deduct-ability of my mortgage interest it will likely cause me to sell these houses, thus taking them out of the pool of available rentals, putting my good, long term tenants into possibly homeless situations. For these two reasons I think this bill is bad for both tenants and land lords.